Renuka Vyavahare

Karan Singh Grover is a doting dad who cannot wait to get back to his daughter Devi, every time he steps out. And we discovered that he has something in common with Alia Bhatt, too. Like Alia sings for Raha, Karan sings for Devi. Giving us a glimpse into his life as a dad, he admits that he loves to sing his little girl to sleep. "I sing lullabies for Devi and it's one duty that I absolutely enjoy, and I think I sing well." Speaking of parental duties, the hands-on father has no qualms about admitting that matching up to his wife, actress Bipasha Basu's energy is no mean task.

The Fighter actor, known for his passion for fitness, is in awe of his wife's discipline. He said, "I have no qualms in admitting that women have always been higher beings. Their dedication and sincerity are inspirational. When Bipasha wakes up in the morning, she is all charged up and raring to go. I wish I could say the same about myself. She ensures

I sing lullabies for Devi and it's one duty that I absolutely enjoy, and I think I sing well she is sharp on time no matter where she goes and is extremely organised. That has rubbed off on me, too, and it's a positive change."

In a previous interview, Bipasha had told us where that quality comes from. "My mother taught us to value time. I am always on time, even when others are late. I would want my child to learn that. These are basic things that take you a long way, professionally and personally. My mother is extremely organised, so that also has helped me a lot. It simplifies and lessens the chaos in your life," she said.

MY BODY IS ON THE WRONG SIDE OF 30: MAXWELL TAKES A BREAK

Australian cricketer Glenn Maxwell, in the post-match press conference on Monday, announced his decision to take an indefinite break from the tournament, citing physical and mental health concerns. He said, "It has been a pretty tough struggle, given my body is on the wrong side of 30. I think that physical and mental toll probably just wore me down a little bit," adding, "I think now is actually a good time for me to give myself a bit of a mental and physical break, get my body right." Glenn, who plays for the Bengaluru team, also said, "If I'm required to get in during the tournament, I can hopefully get back into a really solid mental and physical space where I can still have an impact."

Salman Khan house firing case: Mumbai Police arrest two shooters from Gujarat

Two persons who allegedly opened fire outside actor Salman Khan's residence in Mumbai were arrested from Bhuj district in Gujarat

Excited to start my second innings in Tollywood: Anita

Anita Hassanandani Reddy, widely known for her work in Hindi TV, is set to make a return to Telugu cinema after an eight-year hiatus. The actress has been roped in to star in the upcoming romantic drama Oh Bhama Ayyo Rama, starring Suhass and Malavika Manoj.

Hassanandani, who made her Telugu film debut in 2001 with the blockbuster Nuvvu Nenu opposite the late Uday Kiran, went on to appear in several Telugu films throughout the early 2000s, including Sree Ram, Thotti Gang, Ninne Ishtapaddanu. She was last seen in 2016 film Manalo Okkadu. Hassanandani expressed her enthusiasm about returning to Tollywood, "This film is perfect for my return to Telugu cinema. I'm excited to start my second innings. The story deeply resonated with me, can't wait to start shooting."

This revision removes the overly enthusiastic language and focuses on factual details about her career and the upcoming film. It also clarifies the nature of her last appearance in Telugu cinema. TNN

HOW TO PLAY
Fill in the grid so that every horizontal row, every vertical column and every 3x3 box contains the digits 1-9, without repeating the numbers in the same row, column or box. You can't change the digits already given in the grid. Every puzzle has one solution.

TIMES HITORI

3	9	1	7	3	2	5	6
3	4	1	2	3	8	5	9
2	8	2	4	3	1	2	5
3	3	2	6	4	7	1	8
9	1	4	9	2	2	8	9
3	2	1	5	2	4	5	3
5	7	8	1	6	3	4	2
7	7	3	7	5	7	9	1

HOW TO PLAY
1. A number may appear just once in each row or column. Eliminate repeat numbers by darkening cells. (see example)
2. Darkened cells must never be adjacent in a row or column.
3. Unmarked cells must create a single continuous area, undivided by darkened cells.
4. Every time you darken a cell, you can automatically circle its vertical and horizontal neighbours, which means they cannot be eliminated.
5. Any cell "sandwiched" between neighbours of the same value can be circled. (e.g. 6 4 6)
6. A "triple" is a special case of sandwich. Circle the centre cells, and darken the ends. (e.g. 6 6 6)

Example

8	5	7	3	5	4	6
4	5	1	6	7	6	5	2
2	5	7	1	5	4	6	8

8	4	5	2	3	5	7	1

LOOP THE LOOP

RULES

- Connect adjacent dots with vertical or horizontal lines, creating a single loop (Fig A).
- Crossovers or branches are not allowed (As shown by dotted lines in Fig B).
- Numbers in the puzzle indicate the number of lines that should surround it, while empty cells may be surrounded by any number of lines.
- You can't draw lines around zeroes.
- Each puzzle has just one unique solution.

HOW TO BEGIN:

Example (Fig A) - Begin with the zero next to 3. Since no lines can be drawn around zero, mark crosses around it, as shown. Now there is a cross in one space around 3. So we know the three lines of 3 can only be drawn in the remaining three spaces. Next, these lines can only be extended in one direction each. Continue, using the same logic.

Hints: Keep eliminating possibilities by marking crosses in spaces between dots where a line isn't possible, i.e., if you have already completed required lines or where a line extension may create a branch or cause a deadend (Fig B).

ONE WITH THE BIRTHDAY GIRL: Bakhtiyaar and Tannaz Irani

POV The delivery man stealing a pair of shoes offers a social reality check

A delivery man with dubious intentions, a pair of stolen sneakers, and a nonchalant customer care have together created a future that has kept social media buzzing for the past few days. It all started when a user on X (formerly Twitter) shared security camera footage from a Gurgaon apartment, showing a delivery person walk away with a pair of sneakers after he hands over the order and the resident shuts the door. The user alleged that customer care had little to say apart from asking him to file a police complaint.

The video has gone viral and raised a storm of reactions, with many demanding strict action against the delivery person. Others have called for the service provider to be taken to task. Bollywood actor Sonu Sood waded into the controversy, suggesting the Gandhian option that no action should be taken against the man and he should be gifted a pair of shoes. However, between the two ends of the reaction spectrum – Sonu's appeal to altruism at one end, and the knee-jerk call for immediate punishment at the other – there is scope for a reality check. Yes, the man did steal. And no, society should not condone an act that breaks the law. Having said that, the theft of a pair of used sneakers is a petty crime and nothing more. The fact remains that delivery people are a crucial link in our fast-paced lives and consequently any transgression – whether it's eating food from a delivery package, or stealing shoes – gets hugely amplified. By contrast, far bigger crimes and embezzlements in the white-collar circle don't become such easy fodder for viral social media content.

Delivery Man Caught Stealing Shoes Kept Outside Gurugram Flat

Let's not forget that more shoes are stolen every day from outside places of worship by professed 'devotees' than are taken by delivery boys in a month.

Very proud of the roles I've played: Kubbra

Kubbra Sait believes "Indian cinema is in a great time when films are being led by women"

Kubbra in a still from Foundation (2021)

Kubbra Sait has a professional rule, she doesn't limit herself to projects based on their platform or commercial standing. "I allow life and my profession to surprise me," she says. Kubbra, who has done Sacred Games and films like Sultan and Gully Boy, says she is not tied to the platform. "When you get a good script, platform doesn't matter. In one shot OTT takes you to 195 countries."

She added, "In the five years since I became an actor, I'm getting the kind of work I've been hungry for. Actors keep waiting for good scripts and when you get them, you don't shy away, no matter if it's a digital or theatrical release."

Kubbra wishes theatrical films could adapt from OTT. She says, "If films followed OTT, they could add more contemporary value."

Speaking on her body of work Kubbra says, "I keep my eyes open and don't let anyone run my career. I am very proud of my roles, and accept everything, including criticism. Indian cinema is in such a great time when films are being led by women. Kudos to the filmmakers who give such films a chance, without underestimating the intellect of our audiences."
